Our Spiritual Heritage

Our new Bible class curriculum

We are excited about the new Bible classes that will begin in June. Here is a brief overview of the curriculum:

- A four year program that takes student through the stories of the Bible eight times focusing on the themes shown below.

God is Wise, Quarters 1&2

Light and Water, Quarters 3&4

Life and Bread, Quarters 5&6

Victory, Quarters 7&8

Family and Travelers, Quarters 9&10

Eyes and Choices, Quarters 11&12

Falls and Changes, Quarters 13&14

Good and Evil, Quarters 15&16

- This material is designed to teach children that:
 1. The world around us shows God's wisdom and power.
 2. God is great at light and water and life and bread.
 3. The Bible demonstrates that God is the Hero of History: God is great and God is good. He wins the battles.
 4. God makes families (physical and spiritual) and cares for them. He helps travelers who travel toward Him.
 5. God makes eyes. We can see Him in creation and in His Word.
 6. God chose to make us great. We can choose to cooperate with Him.
 7. All people and nations fall, but I can change because of Jesus Christ.
 8. God loves good and hates evil. I should too.

- Major components of the curriculum:
 - Focusing on praising our Creator in prayer.
 - Encouraging family devotions.
 - Teaching a better understanding of the chronology of the Bible.
 - Showing how all the stories of the Bible are part of God's great plan- we can also be part of His great plan.
- Much of the material is taught using a When wall, Where wall, Who wall and Praise wall.

The material is written for K-3 and Gr 4-6. We are altering the material to also include our age 3-5 year class and our middle school class.
