BEATITUDES FOR TEACHERS

by Edward L. Kirk

1. Blessed are the teachers who set a good example before their students in all things.
2. Blessed are the teachers who know their subjects well.
3. Blessed are the teachers who strive to understand their students.
4. Blessed are the teachers who make provisions for the differences in individuals.
5. Blessed are the teachers who make their work interesting and profitable.
6. Blessed are the teachers who exhibit self-control.
7. Blessed are the teachers who plan their work wisely.
8. Blessed are the teachers who use a variety of methods.
9. Blessed are the teachers who work cooperatively with their associates.
10. Blessed are the teachers who receive criticism constructively.
11. Blessed are the teachers who hunger and thirst after new materials and ideas.

12. Blessed art thou, teacher, though your reward seems small, and some may criticize you and say all manner of discouraging things to you - rejoice; and be exceedingly glad; for yours is a great work!

Thank You, Teacher

- ✓ For the hours spent in preparation and prayer.
- ✓ For the added effort you continue to put forth each week, which few even think about or recognize.
- ✓ For giving many of our children and many of our parents and other adults most of the exposure to the Bible they ever receive.
- ✓ For trying to teach many who are indifferent and unconcerned about God and His Word.
- ✓ For administering discipline to many who seldom receive it otherwise.
- ✓ For caring.
- ✓ For sowing Christ in the hearts and lives of those you teach, thus enriching us all.
- ✓ For continuing to grow spiritually and in knowledge of God's Word as only a teacher can.
- ✓ For doing your job with few knowing or caring that you teach their children God's vital truth.
- ✓ For doing your job well, with few ever saying "thank you".

Thank you, teacher!

News and Notes:

Remember to check the prayer list for those with ongoing spiritual weaknesses and physical illnesses.

“...Pray for one another...The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much.”

James 5:16
