New Bible Classes Begin Today

For the Parents

1. Cooperate and encourage all efforts by the church to help your child learn about God and his duty to Him.
2. Bring your children to all the Bible classes provided.
3. Make sure your children study their Bible lesson and are well prepared for class (for younger classes a summary page including topics and Scriptures is provided in the first class).
4. Go over the Bible lesson with your children. Read the lesson yourself and help them understand and apply it.
5. Impress upon your children the importance of being respectful to their teacher and others.
6. When your children are absent, find out what they missed and go over the lesson with them at home.
7. Make sure your family arrives in plenty of time to get the full benefit of the Bible lesson.
8. Make sure your children get plenty of rest the night before.
9. Create a pleasant atmosphere before coming to Bible class.
10. Support and pray for the efforts of the Bible teacher.
11. If a problem arises remember it is not who is right but what is right. To learn what is right we must go to the Scriptures.

DISCIPLINE – “Training to act in proper conduct” (Instructive and corrective)

1. A teacher must establish and maintain control of the class at all times.
2. Work hard to establish a close rapport and discipline as soon as you begin teaching.
3. Set simple rules which are understood by all.
 - *No gum chewing
 - *Raising of the hand
 - *How you want to be addressed
 - *Have lessons ready, etc.
4. Help each child feel important to you and God.
5. Recognize achievement and improvement.
6. Be generous and sincere in your praise.
7. Remember the age of the child and expect only what he is capable of.
8. Do not compare children. Don't be partial.
9. Do not let one child correct another.
10. Do not become angry.
11. Do not talk about problems of children to other parents.
12. Do not threaten unless you intend to carry it out.
13. If a child persists in being unruly he should be taken to his parents.
14. Discuss the matter with the parents.
